

SOLAR POWER, THE KEY TO

Powering Health in Africa

Panel Discussion

Date: Thursday,
9th of February 2023

Time: from 10:00 AM
to 11:00 AM, CAT

Venue: Cape Town
International Convention
Centre, Exhibition Floor

Representatives from USAID, the donor community, energy sector, and civil society discuss the current challenges and potential solutions.

Brian Smith

Project Director, ABT & Co.

Expert in project leadership & developing products that improve people's health and communities' resilience to climate change.

Loren Stoddard

Foreign Service Officer, U.S.
Agency for Int. Development

Responsible for managing large-scale economic growth programs and achieving self-sufficiency through agriculture production.

Joan Chahenza

Senior Technical Advisor,
USAID/Power Africa & HETA

Provides financial & technical advisory support on the adoption of suitable business models to power African healthcare centers.

Andrew Fleming

Managing Director at Positive Off-Grid Solutions

Expert in rapidly deployable small to medium off-grid solar power stations for fringe-of-grid or to replace diesel power generation.

David De Villiers

Head Of Business Development
Mini-Grids and SHS Wholesale

Expert in energy access, telecommunications, mini-grids, electro-intensive commercial and industrial sectors.

11:00 AM CLOSING